Please note: Sopot is a small town and there are many more hotels can be reached in less than 30 minutes

Access:

Gdansk Lech Walesa Airport, (Gdansk Port Lotniczy) is located ~20 km from Sopot.

Taxi: the ride to Sopot costs ~20-25 Euros. Make sure to take the taxi from the stand in front of the building (the brand is Neptun Taxi), other unlicensed taxis may cost much more.

However, it should be reminded that taxi expenses are eligible for reimbursement only if public transport is not available or if taxis are taken before 7 am for an early travel departure and / or are taken after 10 pm due to a late arrival. Taxi expenses up to a maximum of EUR 80 for the entire journey can be claimed.

Trains go from the airport to Gdansk-Wrzeszcz, where you need to change for the city train towards Gdynia to reach Sopot. The ticket (~1.5 Euro) can be bought with a debit/credit card from a vending machine on the platform. Trains from the airport to Gdansk-Wrzeszcz run approximately every 15 minutes. City trains from Gdansk-Wrzeszcz to Sopot run every 6 or 12 minutes.

The airport train timetable can be found here: <http://skm.trojmiasto.pl/#pkm>

The timetable for city train SKM (line Gdansk - Gdynia) could be found here: <http://skm.trojmiasto.pl/>

Buses (#122) go right to the IOPAN door, the stop is Sopot Korty Tenisowe stop (you need to press a button to indicate that you want the bus to stop there). However, there is only about one service per hour with the likelihood of delays in heavy traffic. You must get off the bus either at Sopot Grand Hotel or Sopot Korty Tenisowe (for the Haffner Hotel).

The time table for bus service 122 - airport - Sopot can be found here:
