Getting from the airport to the venue:

Taxis

There are plenty taxis available at the airport. From the airport to most locations in central Lisbon the trip should cost no more than €12 plus baggage. Taxi fares are calculated on the basis of a minimum fare, currently €3.25. If luggage is carried a further €1.60 is charged. Telephone booking is charged at 0.80€.

METRO (Metropolitano de Lisboa - Lisbon subway / underground)

There is direct Metro service from the airport to the city on the Red line. Faculty of Sciences (the meeting venue) is served by the Yellow line. To go to Faculty of Sciences from the airport, take the Red line and move to the Yellow line at Saldanha station and go out at Cidade Universitária or Campo Grande stations. Faculty of Sciences is served by both stations (Cidade Universitária and Campo Grande). One journey ticket costs €1.45. More information on fares and how to plan your journey at Lisbon Metro

Tip: Buy an electronic ticket, Viva Viagem, and charge it up (minimum charge €5). The card itself costs €0.50 and can be bought at the ticket office or using the vending machines. This card can be valid in the Metro, Carris (bus) and CP (train) depending on the loading option. More information.

Bus (CARRIS)

The bus 783 serves the airport stop and the area of the meeting. A ticket of €1.85 may be purchased onboard. More information on fares and routes.

If your luggage is larger than 50x40x20cm you can use the Aerobus that runs between Lisbon Airport and the city centre, every 20 minutes. Tickets may be purchased onboard and in the Tourism Office at arrivals. More information on fares and circuits.

Tips: Get off of the Aerobus at a stop that is also served by the Metro stations of the Yellow line and choose to stay at a hotel nearby those stations. It will be quicker to go to the venue by Metro without changing lines. The Yellow line serves the Faculty of Sciences (meeting venue).
